GRAYSON COUNTY

Instructs for Bradley and Long and Holds an Interesting Convention.

LITCHFIELD, KY., May 4. A Delegated Convention of the Grayson county Republicans was held at the Court House to-day and nominated Ben L. Brunner for representative of Grayson and appointed delegates to the State Convention, instructed for W. O. Bradley and Geo. W. Long. The County Committee was reorganized. The following resolutions were adopted.

Resolved, That we approve of the call for the State Convention to meet in Louisville on June 5 and the call for this convention.

2. That we congratulate the national Republican party on the magnificent victory which crowned the labors of the last fall's campaign, and especially do we congratulate the people of Kentucky on the almost certain overthrow of the political octopus which, under the protecting wing of the prejudice-fattened Democratic party, has fastened itself upon the proud old Commonwealth, and like a vampire, has sapped our progress, arrested our industrial progress and destroyed the energies of our people by blasting their hopes of industrial success.

3. That we favor the improvements of our roadways, reforms in our penal and charitable institutions, the cleanup of the officers, reforms in our criminal code, economy in the expenditure of public moneys approved business methods in the conduct of every department of the State.

4. That we denounce the maladministration of the Democratic party in Kentucky for its dissipation of the sinking fund which, together with war claims due from the United States aggregated over $9,000,000 in 1865, for its transfer of the funds belonging to the sinking funds, to the general expenditure fund, and for borrowing the school funds, and issuing the interest bearing bonds of the State therefor, for the useless employment of special counsel to do the work of the Attorney General by which, from $10,000 to $20,000 a year has been wasted, for the creation of useless offices directly opposite to the constitution, the violation of the ballot box, and the substitution of a rule for the peoples rule.

5. That we cordially invite all men of whatever former political affiliations, who believe in overthrowing the present rule at Frankfort, and emancipating the State from the blight of modern Democracy and who desire to see the law executed and our institutions intelligently conducted in the interest of the people and not of the bosses, to join with us in electing the Republican ticket in November.

6. That we instruct the delegates to cast the vote of Grayson county as a unit for the Hon. W. O. Bradley, for Governor and for our fellow countyman, Geo. W. Long, for Treasurer. The Convention was a very enthusiastic one, and the Republicans of Grayson went home.

Mr. Perry Westerfield left Tuesday for Nashville. He will travel for a shoe house.

Mr. J. L. Butler and wife, Mr. J. R. Phipps and wife stopped at the Austin House Sunday.

Miss Myrl Butler, Morgantown, who has been visiting in Louisville, stopped over Sunday with Miss Attye Austin to attend the dedication.

ATTY.

Deceased.

On Saturday morning, last, Mrs. Jacob Westerfield died at her home two miles southeast of town. She had been as well as usual until Friday morning, when she left off work in the garden where she was engaged in some planting, saying that she was not feeling well. She went to the house and lay down and was soon unconscious and remained so for several hours. She was better early Saturday morning, but died later. Rev. G. J. Bean preached the funeral at the home Sunday at 11 o'clock to a large number of relatives and friends, after which the remains were interred in Oakwood.

She was a faithful, earnest Christian, a loving wife, an affectionate mother, a kind friend and an obliging neighbor, and her loss will be deeply felt in the community.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good. I have been a sufferer from sick headache and neuralgia nearly all my life. The pains had become so intense that my hands would cramp for hours so that I could not use them. The doctor told my husband there was little help for me. The different medicines tried had greatly debilitated me. Since using two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I have realized relief, so much so that I feel like a new person. THE CONVENTION.

The Democrats Hold a Lively Convention at the Court House.

DEWEY CARRIES THE DAY.

Last Saturday was the time announced for the holding of the Democratic Convention of Ohio county to select delegates to the First Railroad District Convention which meets at Owensboro May 15.

A small number of Democrats came in from the country and with the members of the party from the town, who turned out pretty well, the best vote, between Dempsey and Richardson, showed a little over one hundred taking part.

Chairman Likens called the meeting to order and declared nominations for permanent chairman in order. Mr. J. P. Sanderfur was chosen Chairman and Mr. Heber Matthews, Secretary.

Mr. E. F. Fogle presented the name of J. P. Dempsey, and Mr. M. H. Taylor presented the name of Frank B. Richardson, while the name of Tifton A. Miller was presented by Mr. R. P. Hocker. Chairman Likens came to the rescue of those candidates who were conspicuous by their lack of supporters and nominated Moore, McElroy and Morrow, the shoe man, all in a bunch.

Messrs. B. D. Ringo and T. J. Smith were appointed tellers and the vote gave Dempsey 92, Richardson 32, Miller 2, Moore 1, McElroy 0, Morrow 0.

Motions were made and carried giving Dempsey first and Richardson second instructions.

The following delegates were appointed: S. K. Cox, Dr. J. E. Pendleton, T. J. Smith, J. H. Fogle, T. L. Griffin, J. S. Glenn, C. P. Westerfield, B. B. Wilson, J. J. Michel, J. M. Holloway, J. C. Greer, A. J. Bell, W. C. Tilford, E. R. Ray, Hon. A. B. Tichenor, H. P. Taylor, S. C. Taylor, P. W. Acton, J. D. Maddox, V. Stewart, J. W. Cooper, C. W. Taylor, G. W. Rander, J. L. Rander, Heber Matthews, R. A. Stewart, T. M. Williams, R. M. Wilson, J. B. Vickers, R. P. Thomas, J. M. Caseliner, B. D. Ringo, J. P. Sanderfur, John B. Stevens, B. F. Graves, John E. Magan, and all other good Democrats of Ohio county.

Mon. T. J. Smith, offered the following resolution which was adopted: "That the convention now instruct all delegates of this convention to vote for Judge J. F. Dempsey first in the District Convention at Owensboro so long as he is a candidate before it; and we further instruct our delegates to vote in this county to vote as a unit in said District Convention upon all matter coming before it." The Convention then adjourned.

A TWISTER.

"A twister in twisting May TWIST him a TWIST, For in twisting a twist Three TWISTS make a twist; But if one of the twists Untwist from the twist, The twist untwisting Untwists the twist."

It's the same way with Clothing—that is the ordinary kind. We have seen Clothing that seemed to be twisted all out of shape after being worn a few times. Our Clothing don't do that way. It's made by scientific tailors and made to FIT and WEAR WELL. Our line of Spring Clothing was never equalled before in this county. Nobly, stylish Suits in all the popular cuts and figures. Dress Suits, Business Suits, Wedding Suits—everything needed by those who wear pants. After you have worn our Clothing you will find that it never gets twisted or out of shape.

AND OUR DRESS GOODS—WELL!

You just ought to see 'em. The prettiest line of dainty fabrics ever shown in Hartford. Splendid values at poverty prices. There is no reason why every woman should not be well dressed who will visit our store, for she is sure to find the goods she is hunting and the prices are a small consideration. And then we have other things besides Dress Goods that women wear. We have Ribbons, Hair Ornaments, Gloves, Belts and Buckles, Collars and Cuffs—in fact everything that woman wear or have to do with. All guaranteed to be of the untwisted kind and the prices the smallest thing about them.

OUR MILLINERY

Has been the talk of the county. And no wonder. When you see one of the Hats Miss Sarah Collins sends out you always know it, because its the prettiest Hat you ever saw. And the prices—just as with other things you get at our store, you don't mind 'em.

IN FURNITURE

We are completely stocked. We have the prettiest Chairs you ever saw. We have the handsomest and most serviceable Bed Room Suits you ever laid eyes on. Then we have Tables, Hat Racks, Bedsteads, Springs, Mattresses, &c., till you can't rest until you lay down on one of our Couches, which are the most restful pieces of Furniture you could buy. And the prices—just as before.

OUR GROCERY

Line is never neglected. We always keep full stocked up on everything to eat—the very freshest and best. For staple and fancy Groceries of all kinds, you need go no further than our store. Prices—same old story.

CALL AND SEE US!

If you don't see what you want, call for it—you're sure to get it. We make a point to keep fully stocked up with all the various supplies that families need. We'll treat you well, save you money on your purchases and please you well.

ECHOES.

The following beautiful essay was read before the Livermore Literary Club recently by Miss Nannie Fank:

"Life without hope is like drawing nectar through a sieve, and hope without an object cannot live."

What is the value of life without an object in view? It is quite true some are satisfied to sit and gaze and gossip about the success or failure of enemies and friends, as "Old Women's Gossip Club," and "Old Men's Slang Club" is full and overflowing with echoes of their meetings. They are no respecters of persons, and "Many a word at random spoken May soothe or wound the heart that's broken."

Let the object of our life be something elevating and let it ever echo high and inspiring sentiments. Let us try and make our lives edifying so in after years the memory of them will echo interesting and delightful thoughts. How many sentiments do we hear expressed that seem to echo in our hearts? Is there a maiden whose heart would not echo of a noble minded man, were he to whisper in her ear something like this:

Do you ask me love with fondness, What seems to me perfect happiness? Well, a golden sun, a sapphire sky, And emerald earth, and you and I Roaming through woodland green together.

That's happiness in summer weather. They say it is winter, outside is the snow, Inside is the fires warm, cheerful glow And we sit by the cheek touching cheek: Silent sometimes and sometimes we speak, So I find in winter as summer weather.

Happiness means to be together.

Perhaps many are just experiencing this happy phrase of life and the echo will come later on. What echo in life is sweeter than the laughter of an innocent child? How many can look back to childhood days and echo the songs our mothers lulled us to sleep with? Do we ever hear, "bye oh, baby bunting," and "bye my baby bye oh." That a tender cord is not touched? The word "mother" will awaken many sleeping thoughts for—

There are words that speak of a friendless love Which burns in the hearts we cheerless, And accents that tell of a friendship proved— That will never blight as perish; There are soft words murmured by dear, dear lips, Far richer than any other; But the sweetest word that ear hath heard Is the blessed name of "Mother."

Dear friends while we are sowing seeds of kindness and little words of love let us pray that our endeavors will be echoed in Heaven and that our lives will be pleasantly remembered by the sunshine we have cast here on earth. How beautifully someone has defined the word echo in the following lines:

I shot an arrow into the air, It fell on earth I know not where. I breathed a song into the air, It fell on earth I know not where. Long years after in the heart of an oak, I found the arrow still unbroke, And the song from beginning to end I found again in the heart of a friend.

Obituary.
Funeral Services of Hon. J. M. Forgy were held at C. P. church here last Monday morning, conducted by Mr. Kluhlerin, pastor of the C. P. church of which deceased was a member.

Song by choir: "When Jesus Comes to Reward His Servants," led by J. D. Tanner; Miss Minnie Dabbs presiding at the organ, followed by the reading of the 14th chapter of John, and prayer. Song: Oh, Troubled Heart There is a Home. Mr. Kluhlerin spoke as follows:

Judge Forgy was born June 23, 1820, died March 24, 1895, aged 74 years 9 months and one day. He became a Christian when a young man and united with the C. P. church at Point Pleasant and was soon thereafter elected a ruler elder near 40 years ago. He served that church as an elder several years and was then transferred to the church at Lebanon and was elected by that church as an elder and continued to serve such until the C. P. church at Morgantown was organized March 14, 1874, he became one of its charter members and was elected an elder in which capacity he continued to serve until his death, faithfully discharging every duty he was appointed to do. He frequently represented the church in Presbytery and Synod and at least once in the General Assembly. I have known him immediately since I have been his pastor, now over five years. I have not known him to fail to discharge any duty assigned to him by the session during my term of service. He never made excuses when called to perform any service for his church, such as a pastor frequently hears—such as want of time and pressing business obligations etc. He was frequently elected and filled position of honor and trust by his fellow countrymen, always receiving a liberal vote from the opposing political party. He filled the positions of county school superintendent, county judge and member of the Constitutional Convention.

He was estimated by all as a high-toned Christian gentleman. Another one of the old land men is true. We shall miss him. But we sorrow not as others which have no hope for we have abundant reason upon which to base our hope that our loss is his gain, but not fettered by human infirmities but fashioned into the likeness and image of Christ at his coming.

At a meeting of the Session of the church March 24 at 4 p. m. the following committee was appointed to draft resolutions commemorative of deceased: W. A. Helm, J. D. Tanner and J. P. Phillips, which reported as follows:

Whereas it has please our all wise Heavenly Father in the dispensation of His providence to remove from our midst Judge J. M. Forgy, an honored member of this body by death at his home at Morgantown, Ky., at 5 o'clock Sunday morning March 24, 1895, and while we bow with humble submission to this the will of our Master who knoweth what is best.

RESOLVED, That in the death of Judge Forgy the Presbyterian church at Morgantown, Ky., has lost one of its active and devoted members and a loyal and faithful officer, he having been one of its first and continuous elders since the organization of said church at this place Nov. 14, 1874, the town and community a Christian gentleman, a worthy and useful citizen, his children a kind and indulgent father.

Second, That these resolutions of respect be spread upon the minutes of the Session and a copy be furnished the family of the deceased, and to the Green River Republican for publication.

W. A. Helm, J. D. Tanner, J. P. Phillips, Committee.

Which was adopted. Mr. Kluhlerin then made a few appropriate remarks based upon 14 chap. of John 1-6, emphasizing Christ the way of life and the end was everlasting life. He was followed by Dr. Finley in most appropriate and feeling words reviewing the life and character of Judge Forgy as he knew him for many years. After which his body was borne to the cemetery at Morgantown and laid to rest to await the resurrection of the just. —Green River Republican.

Means impure blood, and overwork or too much strain on brain and body. The only way to cure is to feed the nerves on pure blood. Thousands of people certify that the best blood purifier, the best nerve tonic and strength builder is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What it has done for others it will also do for you—Hood's Cures. Nervousness, loss of appetite and general debility all disappear when Hood's Sarsaparilla is persistently taken, and strong nerves, sweet sleep, strong body, sharp appetite, and in a word, health and happiness follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The strong point about Hood's Sarsaparilla is that they are permanent, because they start from the solid foundation of purified, vitalized and enriched blood.

With in Court.
Many witty things are said by our bright lawyers in the heat of legal passion, says the Boston Traveler. Two prominent attorneys were engaged in an assault case before Judge Hardy in the municipal criminal court yesterday, whose names, for the sake of modesty, are withheld. Lawyer A., becoming nettled at Mr. B.'s leading interrogatories, called him to account sharply. Lawyer B. forgot his caution in his desire to draw out a satisfactory response in the direct examination, when Lawyer A. interposed a second time. "I believe, sir," began Mr. A. savagely, "that I object to your course of putting leading questions to the witness."

"I have ears," replied Lawyer B., solemnly.

"And I sir," rejoined Mr. A., excitedly, "have understanding."

"Well, why don't you use it?" asked the opposing counsel quietly. The habitues of the court room broke into a roar of laughter, into which the judge joined, and for the next few minutes the officers were kept busy restoring order.

Honestly the Best Policy.
"A couple of pickpockets had 'pinched' a fine gold watch from a victim, who offered a reward of $100 for its recovery and no questions asked. The notice fell under the eyes of one of the gentry before the watch had been disposed of, and he took it to his pal.

"I say, Bill," he said; "here's a chance for us to get $100 for the tick—"

"It's worth $400," replied Bill.

"Yes; but you see we get this $100 and no more questions asked."

"And we lose all the balance?" suggested the Thrifty William.

"Perhaps, but we get the hundred straight."

"And that ain't what we want."

Bill's pal rubbed his chin and contemplated his partner seriously.

"You're a good deal worse than I am, Bill," he said at last in a tone of sorrow.

"I guess not," protested Bill. "It's a stand-off between us."

"Not much," responded the pal; "I'm willing to be honest when I get the chance, but you ain't." —(Detroit Free Press.)

Bottom Landers.
Mr. W. E. Bottorff of Jeffersonville, Ind., and Miss Maud Sanders, of this city, were married at 8 o'clock last night by Rev. J. R. Crawford. The bride is a popular young lady living on Third street and the groom is a well known employe of P. A. Ames & Co. They will reside here. —(Owensboro Messenger.)

The Truth is Good Enough.
Have goods to advertise and make the advertisement read as naturally as you would speak to the customer. We often hear it said, "The public likes to be fooled," but we don't believe it. —(Art in Advertising.)

Don't Borrow Your Neighbor's Paper.
The Princeton Banner strikes the key note when he says: "Suppose the editor of this paper should publish only half enough papers each week for his regular subscribers, and send them out with the request that after it had been read it should be handed to the next neighbor who is a subscriber. How do you think that would work? It is very certain it would not give satisfaction, yet there are a number of people in this country who never pretend to take a paper, depending all the time on their neighbors. Some of them have the cheek to borrow the paper before the owner reads it himself. People who make a practice of this, as a general thing, have more cheek than the proverbial governmental mule. They will hold to their dollar and make light of the paper, yet they are the first to grab the paper and find out what is in it before the owner has read it. It is from this pestiferous class that most of the fault finders and critics are generated."

Don't Stop Tobacco.
HOW TO CURE YOURSELF WHILE USING IT.—The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing health, comfort and happiness. To quit suddenly is to severe a shock to the system, as tobacco, to a inveterate user, becomes a stimulant that his system continually craves. Baco-Curo is a scientific cure for the tobacco habit in all its forms, carefully compounded after the formula of an eminent Berlin Physician who has used it in his private practice since 1872, without a failure, purely vegetable and guaranteed perfectly harmless. You can use all the tobacco you want, while taking Baco-Curo, it will not only when you stop. We give a written guarantee to permanently cure any case with three boxes, or refund the money with 10 per cent. interest. Baco-Curo is not a substitute, but a scientific cure, that cures without the aid of will power and with no inconvenience. It leaves the system as pure and free from nicotine as the day you took your first chew or smoke. Sold by all druggists, with our iron-clad guarantee, at $1.00 per box, three boxes, (13 days treatment) $2.50, or sent direct upon receipt of price. CONSUMPTION can, without doubt, be cured in its early stages. It is a battle from the start, but with the right kind of weapons properly used it can be overcome and the insidious foe vanquished. Hope, courage, proper exercise, will-power, and the regular and continuous use of the best nourishing food-medicine in existence—

Scott's Emulsion

—the wasting can be arrested, the lungs healed, the cough cured, bodily energies renewed and the physical powers made to assert themselves and kill the germs that are beginning to find lodgment in the lungs. This renowned preparation, that has no doubt cured hundreds of thousands of incipient cases of Consumption, is simply Cod-liver Oil emulsified and made palatable and easy of assimilation, combined with the Hypophosphites, the great bone, brain and nerve tonic.
